MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

JANUARY EDITION

AY2021/2022

FOREWORD

It's been another month, and we're happy to be back to share about our members' activities for the first month of 2022! We hope everyone's staying safe and keeping well - and we'd like to extend a very Happy Chinese New Year to those celebrating!

MUSIC VOX X RADIOACTIVE

Have you heard our songs playing around TP? This might be why! This month, we collaborated with our resident radio station, RadioActive! They've broadcasted all the songs from our EP 'Beginnings', as well as our National Day Original Song, 'Spread The Light'. Do keep an ear out when you're on campus to hear all our original songs to date. The collaboration also comes as part of their 'Bite-Sized' series which showcases the different CCAs in TP, which we were honoured to be a part of!

TEMASEK POLYTECHNIC'S OPEN HOUSE 2022

We hope everyone managed to catch TP's Open House for 2022, packed with a lot of insightful information and exciting activities for prospective students! Unfortunately, Open House was still online for CCAs, but many great things were presented within the online programmes and videos. We were very honoured to have been showcased in the three days of Open House, which you can still view on YouTube if you didn't manage to catch it!

DAY ONE - ARTS ATTACK

For day one of Open House, Temasek Arts Centre put together a compilation of all the Arts CCAs' best works from 2021, in which we showcased '99' by Venus Landing, comprising seniors Danish, Jovan, Clarissa, Annaqi and Zhi Kai. It's hard to imagine that '99' is the quintet's debut track, with the obvious musicality that they exuded with distinct clarity and confidence. You can check out their other songs on Spotify and YouTube, and do look out for their upcoming music!

Additionally, we were very happy to be featured in TP Band's showcase video, a collaboration on a mashup of 'Radioactive' and 'Believer' by Imagine Dragons. The band comprises alumnus Aniq, seniors Ian, Jovan and Yan Bing, juniors Caresse and Osman, who you'll be able to see performing alongside the talented members of TP Band! (Fun fact: Nigel, whom we share with TP Band as an advisor, is also in the video as a featured cast member!)

DAY TWO - TOUR OF #TEAMTEMASEK

Ever wondered where and how we produce our songs? Our Head of Human Resource Danish and our #TeamTemasek guides show us around our recording and production lab, and share about the process of writing and recording songs. We had a great time introducing the place integral in our song-making process, and we hope it was an informative excerpt that answered any questions you may have had!

DAY THREE - THE LEADERS, ARTS

Lastly, our Arts representatives address queries on life in TP being part of their respective CCAs, and we were extremely thankful that we were given the opportunity to share more about our experiences through our representative Ameerah, who spoke alongside representatives from Temasek Polytechnic's Dance Ensemble, Digital Media & Production Crew, Dikir Barat and Salvo Drums. It was a huge honour for us to be able to share our story alongside other really great individuals, and we think it was also an apt representation of the important cross-CCA bonds we form too!

MUSIC VOX INDUCTION PROGRAMME

We ended the third and final round of the Music Vox Induction Programme slightly before the new year, and we're happy to officially end the programme! A huge congratulations to all the freshies who successfully completed all three rounds, and we're excitedly awaiting the greatness you will produce in the new year! For this last round, R3VIVAL, the bands were tasked to create an original song and music video to fully explore their unique sounds and showcase it. We'll be posting all their tracks in the coming month, so do look out for them!

Here's the rundown of the Round 3 bands:

22 Ten's - So Long

Band B - Into The Sun

Nostoragespace - Brave Heart

D9ine - 那年的爱 (Our Past Love)

Khai + Friends - Beautiful Dreamer

We hope you're excited to see the culmination of their hard work over the duration of the induction programme showcased through these diverse tracks!

MUSIC VOX'S FULL-LENGTH ALBUM

A refresher on some really exciting news! We hope you remember us announcing the upcoming release of our very first full-length album back in October's edition. You can look forward to its release some time in April 2022, and we'll have more exciting news that you can look forward to very soon!

Do stay tuned through our social media, primarily our Instagram (@tpmusicvox) for more updates and behind-the-scenes videos!

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

On New Years' Eve, we watched two Music Vox alumni take the stage for their respective countdown performances!

KHALLY

Khally performed her latest single, 'Wildest Blows' at Mediacorp's 'Let's Celebrate 2022'. She stunned with her strong vocals and sharp dance moves in the chill electro-R&B track. Using a bus and car park lot as her stage, Khally truly awed with her ability to shine anywhere!

MARIAN CARMEL

Marian Carmel kicked off the new year with not one, but two events! She was part of the star-studded indie R&B lineup of WOKFUNK: Class of 2022, presented by Esplanade and held in-person! Marian also joined Mediacorp's indiego RECESS: Let's Celebrate 2022! on Mediacorp's TikTok Live, counting down to the new year with original tracks. We were thoroughly enthralled by both of her New Years' performances!

THAT'S ALL FROM US THIS MONTH!

This concludes the details of our activities for the first month of 2022. We hope you'll have a great February, and we look forward to seeing you in the next edition! Till then, do stay healthy and happy during the upcoming Chinese New Year visitations and the exam/submission period!
