OCTOBER EDITION

AY2021/2022

FOREWORD

October marked the end of Round 2 of our induction programme, whilst bringing forth new content featuring even more members, with even more amazing music and comedic insights! As we welcome the new school semester, we hope the hard work of our members will give you an energy boost when you need a pick-me-up!

MUSIC VOX INDUCTION PROGRAMME

On October 22nd, we had the second showcase of our Music Vox Induction Programme, REVIIIVE! This time, our freshies and their Year 2 Group Leaders took the stage to present their own rendition of chosen cover songs, with a self-filmed and self-edited music video. We thought Round 1 was good, but Round 2 allowed the freshies to incorporate visuals to showcase their cover, and the bands' creative skills and hard work paid off, leaving us once again mesmerised by the freshies' diverse array of talents! Look out for the full lineup of freshie music videos on our IGTV and YouTube from 10th November to 1st December as part of our MV Unwind series!

MV onLine content

For October, we've posted one episode for MV Unwind and two episodes for MV Soundscape Sundays! Each episode features members from different batches of the Music Vox family, and you will be enthralled by their skills and wide range of genres performed. As usual, you can keep up with MV Unwind on IGTV and YouTube, and MV Soundscape Sundays on YouTube and Soundcloud!

MV Unwind:

On October 6th, we posted a cover of 'Thinking Out Loud' and 'New Light', featuring Denise, Dhruv and Yan Bing. Fun fact - Denise, now an alumna of TP, was previously the President of Music Vox in AY2020/2021. Dhruv and Yan Bing are Year 3s and re-runners in the Committee, with Yan Bing as the current President and Dhruv reprising his role as the Head of Training. While they show their groove as a group in 'New Light', 'Thinking Out Loud' is one about a love that only grows stronger through the seasons of change, and with this lineup of experienced members, one cannot help but find a reflection of the song's meaning in their lives as they grew together in MV.

On October 17th, we posted Nicholas's drum cover of 'Antisocial' by Ed Sheeran and Travis Scott. Despite being a freshe in Music Vox, he has truly shone in the experimentation of his playing style, with crazy epic beats matching the fast pace of the song! Paired with the high-energy glitch-style video, we were kept on the edge of our seats as Nicholas showed off his drum prowess for this Soundscape Sundays' episode!

MV. SOUNDSCAPE SUNDAYS

On October 31st, we posted Anna's video of her original instrumental track "Good Luck", an EDM song combining mellow beats with more intense ones! With the video concept and style also directed by herself, we caught a glimpse into Anna's world going beyond catchy beats. This aptly shows music being able to encapsulate one's identity and convey a passion for music, with no words needed.

VOXIFY MV. PODCAST

On October 1st, we posted the first episode of the rebranded MV Podcast, which we've officially named "VOXIFY"! In this episode, our new hosts Dhruv and Danish re-introduce the podcast, diving deeper into the genres of music they like, interesting insights on Music Vox's activities for the rest of the year and even what made them pursue music in the first place. A bonus clip showcasing the wacky behind-the-scenes while filming was posted shortly after on October 4th - you can watch both videos on our YouTube channel, and the full audio of Episode 1 on Spotify!

BREAKING News!

We are extremely proud to announce that MV will be embarking on our very first full-length album (LP) that is to be released at the end of this AY! After collating responses from our members, here are the potential names for the LP:

1 . FULL BLOOM

Compares MV's growth to the growth of the flower – Full bloom representing when all the flower buds have bloomed, also hinting that this is a full length album, a level up from our first venture into releasing our very own original music – Beginnings, MV's first EP.

2 . RUSH

The build-up to a climax perceived as the development to greater heights and bigger stages in life.

3 . PASSAGEWAY

Following the EP, the up and coming LP is paving the way for MV to venture further into the music industry with our very own originals, creating greater better things. This also highlights how the LP involves the freshies, juniors, seniors and even alumni, being the passageway for all members in MV to come together. This places focus on the members, the people who worked to put the LP out.

4 . NEWGROUND

Through this LP, we are stepping into bigger and better things, placing emphasis on new roads and moving towards what's next. The anticipation towards new things coming up in our future projects.

5 . TAKE-OFF

This can represent the members breaking free of the boundaries they set for themselves in any aspect – coming out of their comfort zones. It shows our progress of breaking free from just doing performances, to producing an albums with all our original works. This describes how our members are experimenting with more ideas, from genres to projects and ideas. A break free in our styles or even mindsets, hence taking-off to greater heights.

However, we'd also like for YOU to have a say! Vote for your favourite name, or even suggest your own and stand a chance to have your suggestion used as our album name! The form is now open to the public at this link and will close 30 NOVEMBER 2021, 2359. We can't wait for all your responses – YOUR VOTE MATTERS!

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Keep up with our alumni releases and ventures into the music scene, as they share their songs and stories!

EVERYTHING'S OKAY (EP) - IN SPACE

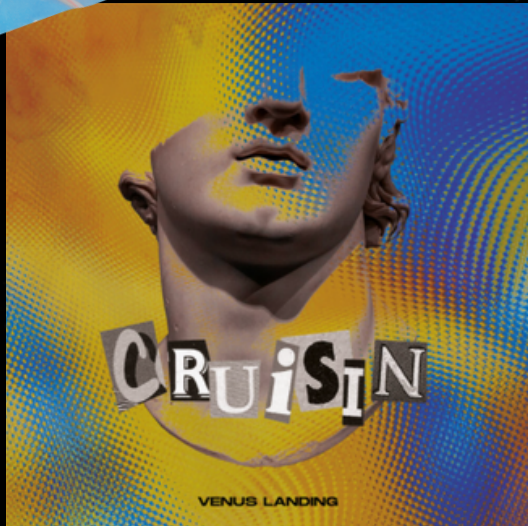

Juan, better known as the solo indie project In Space, released his new EP 'Everything's Okay' on October 8. The EP features 6 tracks, staying true to Juan's signature indie sound and expressing his strong vision and clear direction as a musician. On October 15, Juan released a music video for 'I Still Hope', track 2 of the EP. Its light, cheery colours and peaceful end bring about a resounding message of hope that we are grateful for in this trying time!

LTAL (SINGLE) - KHALLY

On October 15, Khally released 'LTAL' (abbreviated from 'Let's Talk About Love'), a soulful R&B track that beautifully flaunts Khally's melodic vocals and her wide range of singing styles jam packed into a whimsical, exciting and harmonious blend of a song. Khally also released an accompanying lyric video on October 17 and a live performance at Control By None on October 22 where you can catch her in action!

Our heartfelt congratulations to Juan and Khally on their epic releases
this month!

MEMBERS' external releases

CRUISIN' (SINGLE) - VENUS LANDING

Venus Landing, comprising Danish, Clarissa, Jovan, Annaqi and Zhi Kai, released their sophomore Spotify single, 'Cruisin'. With catchy instrumentation and melodic vocals, this unorthodox but hip blend of funk and R&B is sure to get you grooving along! We'd also like to congratulate the band on being featured on several Spotify-curated playlists and the immense success on the release!

that's all from us this month!

we hope you had an enjoyable read catching up with the goings-on at Music Vox! We hope everyone has a great november and we'll see you in the next edition of MV's Newsletter!
