We're halfway through the academic year, now in the midst of the semester break that students have been waiting eagerly to rest and recharge, before the next semester starts. However, the hustle and bustle has not escaped Music Vox, and there have been many ongoing events for our members to have a fulfilling semester break!

TEMASEK STUDENT EXCELLENCE AWARDS

An annual awards ceremony honouring the individual and collective contributions made to and beyond TP, we are pleased to announce that Music Vox has won the Outstanding CCA Contributions Award (Group), and our members Denise, Ameerah and Clarissa have won the Outstanding CCA Contributions Award (Individual)! Denise has also clinched the CCA (Silver) Award for her tireless effort and dedication to Music Vox. Congratulations to the rest of our members who received the CCA Dedication Award, and we will continue striving for excellence in this academic year.

Additionally, some of our members collaborated with TPDE and DMPC on 'The Queen Of Swing', to showcase and celebrate Denise (MV) and Lehmann (TPDE)'s achievements and talent! Ameerah and Masha lent their euphonious voices to join Denise in performing, while Clarissa worked to create a mellifluous mix that made the jazz theme shine. Masha and Clarissa then collaborated on the editing of this thrilling video that truly demonstrated the talent and assiduousness of these students.

MUSIC VOX INDUCTION PROGRAMME

Round 1 of MVIP (REVIVE) of our induction programme showcased the freshies' personal twists on existing songs.

Music Vox would not be the same without our talented bunch of freshies, and these young talents are going through our very own Music Vox Induction Programme (MVIP). There are three stages, with different goals for each round.

Our freshies started off with REVIVE, where all the freshie bands recorded and produced a cover song of their choice. Some of our freshie's got really creative and attempted mashups and genre changes! We're glad to announce that all bands' songs have been uploaded as part of MV Soundscape Sundays! Our last episode for the REVIVE round was posted on September 1st, with Band 6's cover of 'Midnight Sky' by Miley Cyrus. Congratulations to all our freshies once again for completing your cover songs, and being able to learn so much!

Currently, the freshies are working on REVIIVE, where they have been reshuffled into different bands and are working on another cover song which will then be accompanied by their very own self-edited and self-directed music video! To our freshies, We hope to see you unlock so much more of your potential in REVIIVE and that you'll continue learning and discovering your own sound and direction with music!

Coming up in October, we will have the REVIIVE showcase on Twitch before starting our third and final round, R3VIVAL - this entails something even more exciting, so stay tuned for more updates on our talented freshies' works from MVIP!

You can find the full lineup of bands on our YouTube and Soundcloud, through one of our ongoing content series, 'MV Soundscape Sundays'!

We're Being Watched has released their debut EP, 'These Days'! With 5 songs reminiscent of 2000s rock, their heartfelt songs will strike a chord within you and have you singing along!

ONLINE CONTENT FOR SEPTEMBER

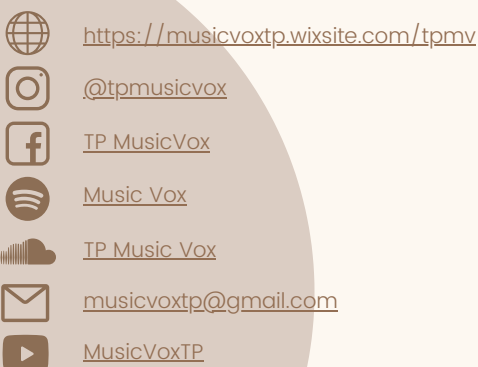

In September, we had Yaoyao & Ashley for MV Unwind and Khai for MV Soundscape Sundays! We also posted the full lineup of freshie band covers as part of our MV Soundscape Sundays.

Speaking of MV's online content, we have both MV Unwind and MV Soundscape Sundays to showcase our members' extensive range of talents! Videos from both series are posted fortnightly and alternately, to spotlight the hard work that goes into each video.

For MV Unwind this month, we posted a video from two of our freshie vocalists, performing a riveting and emotive rendition of Eric Chou's 'Unbreakable Love'! Proving that language is never an issue when showcasing one's love and passion for music, Yaoyao and Ashley really shone with the emotions they conveyed with their singing, as well as through the video they filmed and edited themselves. We're in awe of their multitude of talents, and we can't wait to see more from them!

After the last episode of the MVIP REVIVE Bands on MV Soundscape Sundays, we had a freshie keyboardist, Khai, perform a piano version of 'Story Of Us' by Jo Yuri. Khai has truly outdone himself with a heartwarming arrangement, and his playing - accompanied by a stunning animation done by Masha, our Head of Music Content - truly seems to communicate a storyline that he has written with his playing.
